

SPANISH WAR VETS.

Will Honor Their Dead With Appropriate Services on Memorial Day.

SADDEST AND SWEETEST CALL

Will Be Sounded Over Comrades' Graves—Company D's Monumental Scroll Decided Upon—The Annual Reunion.

Members of old Company D and veterans of the Spanish-American and Filipino wars will honor those of their number who have answered the last roll-call on Memorial Day. In the early morning, while the dew still sparkles on the grass, the veterans will march in a body to Chestnut Hill Cemetery, where appropriate services will be held. The graves of all their dead comrades will be decorated with flags and flowers. "Taps," the saddest and the sweetest call of the soldier, will be sounded over the graves of the dead comrades.

This was decided at a meeting of the veterans held Monday evening in the office of Captain H. A. Crow, in the First National Bank building. The meeting was called at the request of Colonel James E. Burnett for the purpose of determining the style of Company D's scroll on the Hawkins monument in Schenley Park, Pittsburgh, but several other matters important to the soldiers were also discussed.

It was stated in the meeting that in their announcement of Memorial Day exercises, the Grand Army has not extended any invitation to the Spanish-American war veterans to participate in the exercises. The members of old Company D felt slighted by this action of the Grand Army, and by motion it was unanimously decided to hold independent memorial services.

At 5 o'clock A. M. the members of old Company D, as well as members of other commands to participate in the Spanish-American War, will assemble at Main and Pittsburgh streets and will proceed in detail to the cemeteries to decorate the graves. Civilian clothes will be worn for uniformity.

Walter E. Brown Remembered.
A detail will also go to Vanderbilt to decorate the grave of Corporal Walter E. Brown, the only member of Company D killed in action. His remains were shipped home and interred in the Vanderbilt Cemetery. A subscription for the purchase of flowers was started last night and the fund was swelled to a considerable extent today. A committee composed of Sam Clark, Thomas Beatty and H. A. Crow was appointed to look after the purchase of flowers. A committee composed of Thomas Fagan, Frank Bishop, Joel Strawn and George Neeb was appointed to look after the musical end of the program.

Colonel Barnett, who was present at the meeting, explained that three styles had been suggested for the scrolls devoted to the each of the old companies of the "Fighting Tenth." One is that the scroll show only the dead members of the Company, another that it show the dead and wounded, and the third that it show the complete roster of the company. After some discussion it was unanimously decided to suggest that a complete roster be used, containing the names of Captains Hawkins and Crow and every member of the command.

"Searchlight" Included.
It was Sam Clark who made the motion, and he stated emphatically that the roster was to contain the name of "Searchlight." As many Connellsville people know, "Searchlight," which was the cognomen of the regimental mascot, William Doran, was picked up in San Francisco, and smuggled aboard the transport. He was with the Company during many of their battles, but died from malaria at Cavite just before the breaking out of the insurrection.

Called the Roll.
Lieutenant S. V. Ush of Company D brought back memories of old times by calling the old Company roll. He was first sergeant of Company D in the Philippines, and no first sergeant can call a roll faster or better than Ush. He was heartily applauded.

The Next Reunion.
The time and place for the next annual reunion was discussed. None of the towns seem very anxious to have the reunion next year. July 21, the anniversary of the battle of Manila, will have to be abandoned as the date for the annual reunion of the Tenth veterans this year, because the annual encampment of the National Guard comes at this time. So August 21, the anniversary of the taking of Manila, will be substituted. It was suggested that the reunion be held at Washington, Pa.

The meeting Monday night was one of the largest attended meetings of local Spanish-American war veterans ever held. Lieutenant A. J. Buttermore presided.

Will Build a Glass Plant.
The Keystone Industrial Company will build a glass plant at Morgantown the coming summer.

BEST IN THE STATE

So Far, was Captain M. B. Stewart's Opinion of Company D.
Company D was inspected in the Armory Monday night by Capt. Meroh B. Stewart of the Eighth Infantry, U. S. A. The Company made an exceptionally good showing, and the officers and men were highly complimented at the close of the inspection. Said Captain Stewart to a Courier reporter: "I have been inspecting various regiments of the National Guard for the past several weeks, and there is more snap and vigor about D Company of the Tenth than any I have seen so far. I was greatly pleased with the fine appearance of the officers and men, and when the command got to work I found that they knew fully as much as their soldierly appearance indicated. The turnout of the Company was among the best I have seen. This is a great deal more than I have said in the other companies, too."

Captain Stewart arrived in the afternoon, and a little ahead of schedule, proceeded with the State property inspection. All the Company quarters, master and ordnance stores, had been arranged in the Armory, and these were carefully gone over by Captain Stewart. At eight o'clock in the evening this had all been covered away, and the regular inspection commenced. Almost the entire strength of the Company was in line. The boys were spiked and span in their State blue, with white collars and sleeves and polished brasses.

Last of the Springfield.
For perhaps the last time the Armory rang with the cadence of the Springfield rifle manual. Within the next few days the old guns will be shipped to the State arsenal, to be replaced with the new magazine Kings, which arrived here several days ago. Captain Stewart seemed anxious to know whether or not the Company knew how to shoot. So the firing commands were given, and the men, standing and kneeling, fired volley after volley in perfect unison. No company movements were executed, and there was neither guard nor out-post duty. The school of the non-commissioned officers was discontinued. The purpose of the inspection, as previously announced, was to ascertain whether or not the Company was an effective military organization and the inspecting officer seemed satisfied when he saw the Company in good working order.

Visitors Present.
Col. James E. Barnett of the Tenth Infantry came on with Captain Stewart. He was much pleased with the inspection. Capt. J. A. Lear of Mr. Pleasant and Adjutant Harbison of the same place came over to see the inspection. Company E, Captain Lear's command, is the last on the list to be inspected, and the senior officer of the regiment will have lots of time to get his excellent company in ship shape for Captain Stewart. Many townspeople were in the Armory during the inspection.

LEOPOLD A DYNAMITER.

Said He Was and His Neighbors Had Him Arrested.

Leopold Toner, who has been living at Davidson works, is in the lockup. Leopold started out yesterday to blow up the little coke village huddled on Nigger Hill. He said he would, and that is why his neighbors had him arrested. Several of them he threatened to kill. He told them how he was going to clip their ears off, cut their tongues out, slit their windpipes and otherwise detailed how he would carve their anatomy in a manner that was anything but pleasant.

Leopold said he was a dynamiter and had a whole trunk full of dynamite bombs. His neighbors said so too. They came into town and got out a warrant before Squire Miller charging him with making threats, etc.

Constable J. W. Mitchell arrested Toner and he had his hands full getting him into the lockup. This morning he was still mad and full of threats and other language. His trunk will be opened for dynamite. The trouble with Toner is said to be that he has been drinking to excess because his wife left him some days ago.

John McCullough, aged 25, single, was crushed by a fall of coal and instantly killed while at work in Pike mine of the People's company near Brownsville Monday.

Abandoning Greenhouses.
The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will close three of its four large greenhouses at Altoona, Pa. The railroad company is gradually abandoning the growth of flowers.

The engagement of Lewis A. Stern to Miss Anna Silverman of New York is announced.

MAY BE FRATRICIDE.

George Kalp May Be the Murderer of His Brother—Irwin.

ALSO BEAT HIS AGED MOTHER

Into Insensibility for Scolding Him Because He Wouldn't Help His Old Father—Brother Was Kicked and Jumped Upon When Down.

Normalville, May 26.—A brutal assault that is likely to result in murder occurred at the home of Joseph N. Kalp in Sadsbick township last Thursday. Irwin Kalp, a son of Joseph Kalp, is the victim and his assailant is his brother, George Kalp. The latter is 36 years old and his brother is 25. Both sons are married, the injured man having a family of 13 children, all of whom are boys except one. George has no children.

The quarrel that resulted in the assault that may end Irwin Kalp's life occurred on the morning of May 21. Joseph N. Kalp, father of the boys, who is an aged man, asked his son George to take the horses and turn them loose in a pasture field. George refused to perform the small task his father asked him and was taken to task by his mother, who is past 80 years old. The unnatural son then upon set upon his feeble old mother and beat her into insensibility. Both George and his wife were black and blue and she was badly cut and bruised about the face. She managed to get out of the house after she had come to and informed her son Irwin what his brother George had done. At the time the brutal assault occurred there were some of Irwin Kalp's children in the house, all of the family living together or close by each other. None of the men, however, were at hand to prevent George in the brutal assault he made upon his mother.

When Irwin Kalp heard his mother's story and saw her battered and bloody face he was angered and made some remark concerning his brother. George, who had followed his mother, overheard the remark. He followed Irwin into the house, where a scuffle ensued. Irwin was taken and knocked down or slipped and fell. His younger mother jumped upon his prostrate body the instant he fell. He kicked and beat him until he grew tired and then left.

It was several hours before the injured man regained consciousness. A physician was sent for from Mt. Pleasant. He arrived Thursday night and until last night did not expect Irwin Kalp would recover. T. Len sum hopes were entertained, but his case is still considered one with more chances that he will die than that he will get well. He is terribly injured internally. An old capture is heeded, so that if he does recover Irwin Kalp will be crippled for life. Since last night no word has been received from the injured man. The district where he lives is in a remote section out from Chambers, with no telephone connection within several miles.

George Kalp, assailant of his brother, is still at the home of his father. No arrests have been made.

REV. ASA H. WATERS.

One of the Founders of the Jumanville Orphan School Dead.

Rev. Asa H. Waters of Jumanville died suddenly Sunday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Passavant, of heart failure. Mr. Waters had recently returned from Florida, where he invariably spent the winter. Deceased was born in Mercer county in 1824, but spent most of his earlier life in Pittsburgh. He graduated at Gettysburg College in 1853 and the Lutheran Seminary of the same place in 1855. The same year he married Miss Hannah Catharine Steek of Greensburg. His first pastoral charge was at Butler, Pa. During the Civil War he served for a short time as a member of the Sanitary and Christian Commission. He was instrumental in founding the soldiers' orphan school at Jumanville.

Five children were born to Rev. and Mrs. Waters, as follows: Mrs. C. S. Passavant, Rochester, Pa.; John A., superintendent of the orphan school; Dr. Oren J., Chicago; Rev. M. S., pastor of the Lutheran Church, Newark, N. J.; and Asa Harris, Jr., drowned at St. Augustine May 6, 1888.

New S & O. Branch.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has decided to build a connection between its Zelington branch and the line extending from Weston to Pickens, W. Va., Buckhannon being the junction point on the latter. The road will be 12 miles in length and will open valuable timber and coal lands.

Employers' Benefit.

The Bryan stock company will give a benefit for the employees of the Connellsville Theatre this evening. The piece will be "Lost and Won," and it will be exceptionally well staged.

EXCHANGED VAULT DOORS.

Interesting Story of How J. V. Thompson Accommodated Mr. Frick.

The massive steel vault doors that guard the safety deposit vaults of the Union Trust Company in the basement of the Frick skyscraper, Pittsburgh, were designed and built for the First National Bank of Uniontown by order of President J. V. Thompson, and how they found their way into the Frick skyscraper instead of the Thompson skyscraper is an interesting story.

President J. V. Thompson was a little more tormented than Henry C. Frick. When he accepted the plans for the First National skyscraper and the home of the First National Bank he had the details, or at least the most of them, all figured out. Contracts for the interior furnishing and equipment of the big building were placed many months before the steel framework of the skyscraper had even loomed up on the horizon of the country capital. Among these details was the contract for the great vaults and the piston steel doors that make them fireproof and burglarproof.

Some months after the time the contract was placed for the First National vault doors H. C. Frick placed the contract for the safety deposit vault doors to go in the Union Trust Company's quarters in his new building on Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, which is rated as the finest and most costly skyscraper in the Smoky City. Mr. Thompson's order was in hand of his, Mr. Frick learned. To build these vault doors requires a year's time. Mr. Frick was very anxious to have his vaults ready when his building was completed. Having taken time by the forelock, Mr. Thompson's order was well under way. Mr. Frick made Mr. Thompson a proposition. It was to permit him to take the doors made for the First National the Union Trust Company order being substituted in their place. A handsome bonus went with the proposition. It ran into thousands. Mr. Thompson accepted the proposition, in the first place as a matter of accommodation to his friend and secondly as a matter of business. Mr. Frick also agreed to pay the difference in the contract price for the new First National doors originally intended for the Frick building, which with the advanced cost in labor and material amounted to nearly $10,000.

Coupled with the bonus paid Mr. Thompson for the exchange of orders it cost Mr. Frick well up in the steel demands to have his vault doors all ready when the building was. They were delivered to him on time in February, 1902. The doors for the First National building did not come until later, but they were ready when the building was, and how they represent much less to Mr. Thompson in cost than they would had the doors originally contracted for been installed.

HELD FOR COURT.

George Decker Accused of Robbery by Colored Bootblack.

There was a hearing before Justice of the Peace Berger in New Haven this morning in a robbery case in which L. L. Ligan, a colored bootblack who has a chair under the Pennsylvania railroad bridge on Water street, was the prosecutor. He accuses George Decker and another young man, who has not yet been arrested with robbing him of $20. It seems that Ligan had a $20 bill, which he had changed into bills of smaller denomination. He was sitting in his chair with these in his hand, when he fell asleep. When he awoke the money was gone, and he blamed a crowd of young fellows who were standing near with the theft. "Doc" Ash was arrested, but was discharged because he proved an alibi. After the evidence was all in Squire Berger held Decker for court, refusing to take bail, because the case comes under the felony class. Decker was taken to Uniontown jail.

NEW SPLICE JOINT.

May Be Manufactured at the Sligo Iron & Steel Co's Plant.

John A. Guder, the local promoter, has a new scheme on hand. He has secured from Joseph Dixon, a Baltimore & Ohio passenger conductor, the patent rights for a new improved splice joint for steel rails. The new device has a number of good features, among them being an automatic spring lock, which holds the rails together firmly, and which by a slight movement can be instantly released. Conductor Dixon has worked for a number of years on this patent, and high authorities have said it is the most practical device on the market.

Mr. Guder proposes to introduce the new joint at the plant of the Sligo Iron & Steel Company, and thinks the company can make a good thing out of its manufacture. He has a fine aluminum model of the joint at his office, and a number of railroad men have already inspected it, pronouncing it first-class in every particular.

Store Robbed.

The Connellsville Machine & Car Company's store was broken into Sunday night and the money drawer was robbed of $1.25 in change. The robbers also took several pocket knives. They used two picks with which they broke the lock on the back door.

QUIET HOME WEDDING.

Ada Josephine Phillips and Guy Robert Ramsay Were Married Today

AT BRIDE'S NEW HAVEN HOME.

Beautiful Floral Decorations and Music Made the Ceremony a Charming One of the Late Spring Weddings.

Under a bower of the purest of white flowers and the deepest of nature's green, where stately lilacs and bold peonies were mingled with the clinging sprays of smilax, Miss Ada Josephine Phillips and Mr. Guy Robert Ramsay were married at one o'clock today. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. H. McVane, rector of Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, and a relative of the bride's mother. The marriage, arranged with excellent taste, was one of the most artistic house weddings of the season.

The wedding was attended by about 35 relatives and intimate friends of the couple. His appointments were beautiful in their simplicity and the marriage carried with it all the charm of quiet home functions. While Kierle's orchestra, concealed behind a screen of palms, played the march from "Lohengrin," Dr. Ellis Phillips, the bride's father, came from the library into the parlor with the groom. Leaving him near the bower, Dr. Phillips met the bride, who came downstairs unattended, in the hall. She entered the parlor leaving on the arm of her father, who gave her away. After the ceremony, performed according to the rites of the Church of England, the orchestra played a selection from Mendelssohn, and the bride and groom were congratulated by the guests.

The bride was tastefully gowned in white point de espart over white chiffon and white tulle. The gown was made with a bodice and flounce of duchesse lace. She wore a tulle veil and carried a silver prayer book.

After the wedding a breakfast was served in the dining hall by Kuhn of Pittsburgh. The decorative scheme throughout the home was green and white, carried out in perfect detail with charming effect. After the wedding the bride and groom departed for their wedding tour. They will make their home at Birmingham, Alabama, and will be at home to friends in about ten days.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ellis Phillips, well known residents of New Haven. Her earlier education was received at Miss Fuller's school for young ladies in Pittsburgh. She later attended Kells School at Syracuse, N. Y. She devoted much of her time to the study of the violin, having taken instruction from Pittsburgh, Syracuse and Scranton teachers. Her beautiful playing has often added to the merit of local entertainments, and her talent is well known in musical circles.

Mr. Ramsay is from Pottsville, Pa. He is a civil engineer, a graduate of Robert College, in New York State. He has been employed for several years in the Connellsville coke region, and is now in the employ of the Tennessee Coal & Mining Company.

Following are the out of town guests who attended the wedding: Stewart Robinson, Mrs. Anne Robinson, Miss Nellie Slagle, Miss Janet Todd and Miss Sophie McCormick, Pittsburgh; Miss Helen Bryce, Mr. Pleasant; Mrs. Sarah Ramsay, mother of the groom; Pottsville, Pa.; Walter Silliman, Altoona; Dr. James Phillips, Columbus, Ohio; Arthur Motion Phillips, Cornell University; Jack Durham, Reading, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Torrence, York, Pa.; Misses Joseph and Catherine Torrence and Robert M. Torrence, Washington, Pa. Owing to recent deaths in the family, only a few of the groom's friends could attend the wedding.

DIDN'T SHOW UP.

Poker Players Allowed Forfeits to Enrich Borough Coffers.

None of the ten men who were arrested in a poker room on Mountain alley Sunday night showed up for a hearing. Thus their forfeits of $13 each were forfeited to the borough. The tables and other supplies confiscated by the borough police are still stored in City Hall.

District Attorney A. E. Jones said to a Courier reporter this morning that he had ordered County Detective Alex McBeth to make a complete investigation of the case. In case suit is brought against the owners of the room by the Commonwealth, the paraphernalia will probably be used as evidence.

Married at Cumberland.

Cumberland, Md., May 25.—Thomas Russell Hendershot of Artomas, Pa., and Eliza Rebecca Bennett of Cumberland; William J. McFarland of Ohio; and Jennie Bister of Broad Ford, Pa.; William Albert Menges and Flossie Myrtle Evans, both of Hyndman, Pa., were married here Saturday.

MILLER IS DISMISSED

From Postoffice Department and Warrant Issued for His Arrest.

WAS BRIBED BY TURF COMPANY

Charges Have Been Under Investigation for Three Months—Warrant Also Out for Partner in Transaction.

Case Will Be Tried in Cincinnati.

Washington, May 26.—Daniel V. Miller was taken to city hall and placed under arrest by a deputy marshal. He waived examination and was released on $1,500 bonds for appearance at court in Cincinnati next autumn. The warrant charges conspiracy instead of bribery, as first reported. A warrant on the same charge has been issued for the arrest of Joseph M. Johns, a lawyer of Rockville, Parke county, Ind. It was intended to have both arrests made at the same time, but no report has been received yet of Johns' apprehension.

Cincinnati, May 26.—Word was received by federal officers that Joseph M. Johns has been arrested at Rockville, Ind. Johns, it is said, was the man who worked directly with John J. Ryan and accepted the money for the Ryan letter. According to the federal officers, Johns' first offer for the letter was $5,000. Ryan refused to pay that amount, when Johns agreed to compromise for $2,500. Johns and Ryan met at the Gibson house in this city Jan. 12, when Ryan paid over the money and in return received the letter which was used in advertising the "get-rich-quick" scheme. Subsequently Ryan paid Johns $2,000 more for other services. Johns is prosecuting attorney of Parke county, where Miller formerly lived.

Washington, May 26.—Postmaster General Payne summarily dismissed Daniel V. Miller, assistant attorney in the office of the assistant attorney general for the postoffice department, for accepting a bribe in connection with the case of John J. Ryan & Co., charged with fraudulent use of the mails. A warrant has been issued for Miller's arrest.

Another warrant has been issued for the arrest of a man who is charged with being the partner or a go-between in the transaction. A postoffice inspector has gone west from Cincinnati to effect the arrest. The bribe is alleged to have been accepted at Cincinnati last December.

Miller came here from Terre Haute, Ind., about two years ago. He was appointed by former Assistant Attorney General James N. Tynes. The charge against Miller has been under investigation for three months. The Ryan company was a turf investment concern which operated at St. Louis and Covington, Ky. Its methods and working operations are said to be similar to those of the Arnold company, which has figured conspicuously in the postoffice investigation. The inspectors have been quietly at work on the case and action was delayed so they might get together all the papers and evidence which in their opinion was necessary. Postoffice Inspector in Charge W. F. Vickery, at Cincinnati, and Postoffice Inspector R. M. Fulton, at St. Louis, recently were given full charge of the case. Complaint was made by Inspector Fulton before a United States commissioner in Cincinnati Saturday and a warrant was then issued for Miller and for the other party. Inspector Fulton immediately came to Washington, while another inspector went west from Cincinnati to make the other arrest.

It is stated that the amount offered Miller as a bribe aggregated several thousand dollars and was in the form of a cash payment, followed by a check. This payment is alleged to have taken place in Cincinnati, so the case will be tried there, probably in the October term of court. Mr. Miller probably will give bail for his appearance at that time. The penalty for the offense is prescribed in section 5561 of the revised statutes, which says that "every officer of the United States, and every person acting for or on behalf of the United States in any official capacity under or by virtue of the authority of any department, or officer of the government, who asks, accepts or receives any money or any contract, promise, undertaking, obligation, gratuity, or security, for the payment of money or for the delivery or conveyance of anything of value with intent to have his decision or action on any question may at any time be pending, or which may be by law brought before him in his official capacity, or in his place of trust or profit, influenced thereby shall be punished by a fine not more than three times the amount asked or accepted and by imprisonment not more than three years."

Mrs. Agnes Ethel Tracy Dying.
New York, May 26.—Mrs. Agnes Ethel Tracy, who, as Agnes Ethel, was known to the theatergoers of three decades ago as the most promising exponent of emotional roles and who left the stage at the height of her success for quiet domesticity, lies dying at her home in this city. Her charities have been many and generous to struggling actors and actresses.

The showers of the last two days will help the trout fishermen. The streams in the mountains have been too clear for good fishing ever since the opening of the season. A little murky water makes better fishing than any other stage. When the water is clear the wary trout race away at the first approach of an angler.

VALE DICTATOR BRYAN!

Ex-Governor Stephens of Missouri, replying to some impudence of Col. William Jennings Bryan, said: "As between anarchy and plutocracy you may call me plutocrat. I shall never again write or say anything that will give further encouragement to the anarchistic sentiment now prevailing in the ranks of our party." The once powerful Dictator of Democracy will soon be forced to abdicate the throne he has occupied for the past eight years. His paper crown is frayed, the gilt and tinsel is torn and under the brave surface can plainly be seen the label of its makers, the well but not favorably known firm of Populism & Anarchy.

William ruled the subservient democracy tight royalty; he made them bow the knee and worship at the altar of the Free Silver Call four years after the voice of the people and the verger of events had demonstrated the worship to be wholly idolatrous; but his power is broken, his race is run, his reign is ended.

The Democratic party parts with him with about as much regret as Simbad parted from the Old Man of the Sea.

THE GARDEN OF EDEN.

The Uniontown News Standard having established to its own satisfaction that Uniontown is the center of the Connellville coke region, turns its attention to its ancestry with geological results quite as far-reaching and startling as its geographical discoveries. It says:

"Uniontown has much in which she can and does take a justifiable pride. She is the metropolis of the greatest coke field of the world, her buildings far surpass those of other towns of her size and her banking institutions are the envy of the country. She comes to the front and scores a winner in still another line in which she does the whole world to produce her equal. Thousands of families boast of their genealogy and can trace their ancestry into the dim and receding past and prove that royal blood still flows through their veins; but there are several families in Uniontown who can trace, without a missing link, their ancestry from the present generation to their forefathers, Adam and Eve."

We know from experience that it is folly to argue with Goldsmith's famous schoolmaster, who "after that vanquished, could truce still 'and we will attempt it."

It is not impossible that Uniontown was the original Garden of Eden and that Adam and Eve bathed in the waters of Redstone creek. The Tree of Life was no doubt located in Union Hollow, and the old Serpent of Satan tempted Eve under its shade has hung around the spot ever since.

The cruel war is over. The windmill is shivered, Don Quixote has retired and Sancho Panza has slipped and peace reigns!

There is a wide diversity of opinion about one of the final details of the Hawkins monument. Some of the companies want only the names of the dead inscribed thereon; others want the dead and wounded; a third class want the complete roster of each company carved thereon. Company D of Connellville went the limit and asked that everybody's name be inscribed. The members argued that while they were not all dead yet, they would be in the course of time.

In the mad race for fame, it is to be hoped that the old veterans and the young veterans will not forget the respect due to Memorial Day and those whose memories it honors.

China kept the faith.

There has been a shake-up on the Pennsylvania railroad. It's one of the kind the boys along the line like to see.

Ford City's library building is for sale. There are some ill-natured, narrow-minded people in Connellville who would like to see our public library building on the auction block also. There is only one explanation to this shameful fact, and that is the old saying, "It requires all kinds of people to make a town."

The silk mill industry seems determined to cross the mountains and locate in Western Pennsylvania. Greensburg is now threatened. Connellville had the first attack.

The poker industry has suffered a suspension.

Automobile races as they are run in France are scorches in more senses than one. Unfortunately, it is not only the fool riders who suffer, but also the innocent pedestrians and bystanders.

Colonel Henry Hall is writing letters to the Pittsburg Times telling its readers what a wonderful Territory New Mexico is and how well she is qualified for Statehood. It is possible that Hon. Bill Flinn's paper can find a topic upon which to agree with Hon. Matt Quay.

President Roosevelt says his candidacy for a second term has been discovered, and he sees no reason why those who favor it should not say so and those opposed speak up against it.

Exchange Etchings.
The Fayette City Journal figures out that the town can borrow $27,500 for improvements.

The Monongahela Times reports the presence of the dynamite dynamite in Jackson creek where thousands of fish were recently destroyed, and says an effort is being made to get them out and bring them to justice.

The Connellville News says the town is looking for a new neighborhood. Pushing them were not fashionable last winter.

The People's Enemies.

New York Herald.
The Connellville Courier, stalwart Republican, serves notice that it will oppose the resolution of two members of the Fayette county delegation who voted for the Salts-Gandy libel bill, saying of their act that the new papers of that county will "not neglect the first opportunity of requiring it in kind." The Courier is one of the many respectable papers that will obey the injunction law because it is the law, but that will regard as the people's enemy every man who helped to place the law upon the statutes.

Resolution of Respect.

Connellsville, Pa., May 18, 1908.
To the Noble Grand, Vice Grand, Officers and Members of William McKinley Lodge, No. 140.

Sirs and Brothers:
Whereas, through the wisdom of the Divine Ruler, Brother P. G. John A. Mastrozzi, has been called by death to sever his relations with those with whom he was bound by the tender ties of father and the maternal ties of Old Fellowship; and

Whereas, by his death the children have lost a kind and indulgent father and a dear old man of the shining lights, a brother esteemed, respected and beloved by all who knew him; a man of heart, affectionate in disposition; ever ready to extend a helping hand; his kind acts and helpful words cheered us on the way of life. His very presence in our midst shed happiness. We loved him, and he loved us; this is the truest, sweetest word which can fall on the ear of the dead. God has seen fit to take him. So far as this world is concerned, we have hidden him away; but his memory will live a star, shine to gladden us, to cheer us and to raise us to higher and holier purposes.

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from us we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased, in the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose Christenments are means in mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be spread on the minutes, a copy sent to the family and be printed in the city papers. Committee:

FIFTEEN FATALITIES

And Over a Score Seriously Injured by Storm in Nebraska.

FINANCIAL LOSS IS NOT GREAT

Tornado Demolishes School House in Which Services Are Being Held, Killing Minister and Three Others. People Sought Safety in Cellars.

Hastings, Neb., May 26.—A series of heavy storms, two of which developed into the worst tornados that have visited Southern Nebraska for years, passed over portions of Clay, Franklin and Kearney counties Sunday evening. Fifteen persons are known to have lost their lives and over a score of persons were more or less seriously injured. The casualties are as follows:

Near Norman—Dead: Daniel McCurdy, Robert McCurdy, Mrs. John Wehaver, Mrs. Earl Bacon, Mrs. C. A. Tippet.

Injured: Mrs. George J. Maer, arm broken; Ivey McCurdy, leg broken; George J. Maer, badly hurt; Robert Chambers, badly hurt; Earl Bacon, John Wehaver, Mr. and Mrs. Kinney, not seriously hurt.

Near Upland—Dead: Lutheran minister, name unknown; Mrs. John Peters, farmer's wife; Mrs. Chris Lamers and mother.

Injured: Chris Lamers and two children William and Minnie Schultz, Fred Pop and mother, Mrs. Isaac Casper.

At Pauline—Dead: Mr. and Mrs. James Mumaw and child, Frank Quigg, Flora Palmer, John Palmer.

At Fairfield—Injured: Mrs. A. W. Broderick and child, serious; John McReynolds, internally injured; Mrs. Noble Lindsey, Charles Taylor, caught by falling chimney, serious.

Near Norman, at the home of Daniel McCurdy, a number of relatives and friends were spending the day and not one in the house escaped death or serious injury. Two miles south of Upland, German Lutheran services were being held in a school house when the storm struck and demolished it, killing four of the occupants, including the minister, and injuring a number of others.

The storm was equally destructive at Fairfield, but the people were warned of its coming and sought cellars for safety. Six dwellings were blown to pieces at that place, but their occupants escaped injury with a few exceptions. Every dwelling and out-building in the path of the tornado was blown to pieces, and the financial loss thus accounted for, will reach about $60,000.

The family of Peter Hockinson, nine in number, was reunited late in the day. They lived near Norman and were separated by the storm, it being feared at first that most of them had been killed.

There were two tornados, both originating within a mile of Fairfield. The first one moved in the northwest and the second off to the southwest. The one to the northwest did the greater damage and all the fatalities seem to have been in its path. The greatest loss of property was sustained by farmers. The heaviest individual loss reported is that suffered by Charles Taylor, who places the damage to his stock farm, including cattle and horses killed, at $21,000.

POLITICAL SITUATION IN OHIO

Roosevelt Gives Out Statement Regarding His Endorsement in Buckeye State.

Walla Walla, Wash., May 26.—Secretary to the President Loeb gave out the following statement:

In speaking of the sudden political developments in Ohio the president said:

"I have not asked any man for his support. I have had nothing whatever to do with raising the issue as to my endorsement. Sooner or later it was bound to arise, and inasmuch as it has now arisen, of course those who favor my administration and nomination will endorse them and those who do not will oppose them."

The president also said he was deeply touched by the action of President McKinley's home county, in which Canton is situated, in instructing so heartily in his favor. Nothing could have pleased him more.

Mrs. Kemp Granted Divorce. Newport, R. I., May 26.—A divorce was granted Marie Isabel Kemp from Arthur T. Kemp. Mrs. Kemp is a daughter of Mrs. Frederick Neilson and the sister of Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt. Neither of the principals appeared in court, the case being heard entirely on depositions. Mrs. Kemp charges neglect and failure to provide the necessities of life.

Smith & Wesson Close Their Factory. Springfield, Mass., May 26.—The firm of Smith & Wesson, revolver makers, closed their factory for an indefinite period. This step is taken because of labor troubles, the men having signified their intention of forming a union despite the opposition of the firm.

Quiet Elections In Peru. Lima, Peru, May 26.—Elections for congress were held throughout the republic and passed off quietly.
